E. C. WALTON

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President.

ALTON BROOKS PARKER,

of New York.

For Vice President.

HENRY G. DAVIS,

of West Virginia.

For Judge Fifth Appellate District,

JUDGE JAMES E. CANTRILL,

Of Georgetown.

AN Owensboro preacher said in a recent sermon that it is a delusion to believe that women are better than men, for every time you find a mean man a meaner woman is associated with him. This is the same old Adam cry. The woman did it, it is still the excuse of erring men. It is a very cowardly one. There are women meaner than hell itself, but they are the exception. Women are naturally in every respect better than men. They are first in every good word and work and a very present help in time of trouble. They fill the churches and minister to the sick and afflicted. They will also fill heaven, where if Sam Jones knows whereof he affirms, there won't be a sufficient number of men to furnish the bass for the singing. The Owensboro preacher needs to make an humble apology to the sex he has so meanly slandered.

THE republicans, it is stated, will centre their efforts in Kentucky on the Fifth Congressional district. A number of speakers of national note, including Secretary Taft, will be paraded on the stump, while money will be as plentiful as if it grew on trees. And all this and more too will not defeat the young Statesman, Hon. Swager Shorley.

It is reported that Thomas E. Watson, the populist candidate for president, is to become editorial writer in New York after the campaign with a salary of $20,000 per annum. If Tom can get that salary he had better throw up his job of rainbow chasing and take it now. He would then be able at least to know "where he is at."

DUN'S and Bradstreet's both show a slight increase in commodity prices between August 1 and September 1. Provisions, groceries, breadstuffs, fruits, etc., showed most of the advance. The general level of values is 37 per cent. above the low water mark touched in July, 1896, during the free silver panic.

N. D. MILES, of Jessamine county, was nominated for Congress in this district by the republicans at Nicholasville Wednesday, there being no other candidate before the convention. The nomination was a cut and dried affair.

JOHN W. YERKES thinks he can carry Kentucky republican with four speeches from himself. At least he is going to try and do it with that number.

PREACHERSVILLE.

It is almost as dry as it was in September 1897.

Gideon Rothwell has sold his farm to Webb Faulkner for $1,250.

Thieves helped themselves to some of Mrs. J. B. Miller's chickens a few nights since.

J. H. Kennedy and wife have returned from Indianapolis and are now with the families of G. C. and M. O. Kennedy. Charley Sowders, of Bee Lick, visited his brother, Levi Sowders.

That charivari of last week was the first in this section for many years. The boys kept up a din that was heard at quite a distance. After an hour of noise the merry-makers withdrew to serenade Bob Garrison and Leonard Nave, who enjoyed the silvery notes of midnight music?

While cutting posts in his yard J. H. Rigby found a dead cedar bush, which was completely enclosed by two large cedars that had grown from the ground up for a distance of four or five feet. There were knots and saw-marks which show that it had been pruned at one time. The only satisfactory explanation to account for this freak of nature is that the bush was killed by fire, when the residence of Wm. Greene burned nearly 30 years ago and that a young cedar tree started on opposite sides and finally united.

The widow of Gov. J. W. Stevenson, is dead at Covington, at the age of 80 years.

Crab Orchard.

Dr. Redd continues quite ill. The Holtzelaw children, who have been ill with typhoid fever, are all convalescent.

It is rumored that there will be a wedding here this month. Names of the happy young couple will be given in due time.

Miss Hettie Harris will be pleased to receive subscriptions from her friends for their magazines and papers. She can order any day anything wanted.

Rev. J. R. Faris, of the Christian church, preached two excellent sermons Sunday. One baptized in the afternoon. The work of rebuilding the church will begin in a few days and the members hope to use it before another year.

Mrs. Annie Haldeman and daughters, who have been enjoying the summer at Mrs. Jane Buchanan's, left Tuesday night for Atlantic City and New York. Miss Jean Buchanan accompanied them. Miss Jean Bachop, of Boston, is a guest of Mrs. Jane Buchanan. Mrs. Martha Collins, of Washington, D. C., is a guest of Mrs. Martha L. Harris and family. Mr. Curtis Egbert is home from Chicago for a rest.

Mrs. Kittie King left Tuesday for the cities to buy her fall millinery. Her son, Sam, also left for St. Louis at the same time. Misses Mabel McWhorter and Katie King have entered school at Stanford. Miss Clara Collier left for Georgetown Monday to attend school and Miss Bessie Thomas at Loretto Academy. Messrs. Wallace Gover, Sr., entered school at Lancaster and Wallace Gover, Jr., at Berea this week. Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Edmiston have returned from a short trip to Madison. J. Steenbergen and Mrs. Hatchison, of Jellico, are visiting friends here. W. A. Carson and family, of Stanford, spent Sunday with the family of Mr. K. Farris. James D. Anderson is building a small cottage on Stanford street. Sam Reynolds is having a handsome residence built just beyond the Springs Hotel on the Lancaster pike.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Bronston, Pulaski county, went dry since 1899.

Lee Campbell has been appointed postmaster at Peck, Casey county.

John D. Jennings, a well-known stockman and farmer at Bryantville, is dead after a short illness of fever.

The jury failed to agree in the case of John Breeden for the murder of Jesse Pinkney at Jellico, standing seven for conviction and five for acquittal.

Centre College opened Wednesday at Danville with a larger number of students in attendance than the institution has had since its consolidation with Central University.

"Uncle Jimmy Brewer, an old and highly respected citizen of near Middleboro, was found lying dead on the floor of his home. He was 83 years of age and had lived alone since the death of his wife 16 years ago. It is thought his death was sudden and due to infirmities of old age.

The body of a man named Harris, formerly a brakeman of the L. & N., was found in a vacant lot at Lebanon Junction and all the indications point to a murder, though no clew has been discovered regarding who did the killing. The body had evidently been at the spot where it was found for several days, as it was in a decomposed condition.

The colored waiters at the Commercial Hotel, Harrodsburg, went out on a strike for higher wages. They made a demand on Mr. John O. Vandersall which was turned down, and returned to their duties apparently satisfied, but just as the noon meal was served and the guests were seated at the table and the first orders given, they put on their coats and left the establishment. Mr. and Mrs. Vandersall and the clerks immediately took their places, and the waiting guests were served with very little delay.

MATRIMONIAL.

Dr. C. M. Murrill, of Sabula, Ia., and Miss Irene Dehoney, of Columbia, were married at the latter place Wednesday.

The marriage of Allen Yeager, who recently resided in this city, and Miss Maud Gibson, of St. Louis, was solemnized in Louisville Monday afternoon. —Advocate.

The rapidity with which Gov. Bob Taylor gets out and into the matrimonial harness proves him to be as handy in such matters as he is with "the fiddle and the bow," says the Lexington Democrat.

A Campton dispatch says: W. T. Tolson, has filed a suit for divorce, and the case will be tried at this term of the circuit court. Tolson has been married six times, and all of his wives are alive at this time except No. 5.

A marriage that is of much interest to their many friends in this county is that of Miss Pattie H. McDowell and Mr. W. S. Rowland, which was celebrated at the First Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon at half past two o'clock. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Rowland took the four o'clock train for the East. —News.

Seven persons, members of one family, perished and six others were badly hurt in a New York tenement house fire.

HIGHLAND.

At the reunion last week the "merry-go-round" was the centre of attraction. W. H. Terry and Una Graybeal are working on the railroad near Norwood.

Mr. O. G. Speaks, who has tried threshing wheat in Kansas for two seasons, has found out that there is more to be made by working at home than abroad.

J. R. Carrier, of Eubanks, has moved to the H. H. Walls house and he aims to put up a blacksmith shop in our midst. Mr. N. P. Wright, of Bee Lick, has moved to his place, recently bought of J. M. Young.

John Reed and other parties sold some shoats at 10c. J. M. Young sold the remainder of his farm to Roy Stewart for $100. Mr. J. M. Atkins sold his farm to Mr. James for $1,200. We hope that Mr. Atkins will find another location and remain in our vicinity.

J. M. Young and wife left Sunday for Bedford, Ind., where they intend to make their future home. M. O. Bryant and family, of Burnside, are visiting their relatives here. Miss Annie Delaney, of Lexington, came over to visit Mr. A. A. Bastin and take in the reunion. Brac Godbey, of Joyce, was here last week. Elza Goodpaster has been at home a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Gover were at Mr. John Meier's Monday. Mr. A. B. Young went to Pulaski Tuesday to attend the funeral of his brother, John F. Young.

Only Did His Duty as He Saw it.

"I deem it my duty to add a word of praise for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says J. Wiley Park, the well-known merchant and postmaster at Wiley, Ky. "I have been selling it for three or four years, and it gives complete satisfaction. Several of my customers tell me they would not do without it for anything. Very often, to my knowledge, one single dose has cured a severe attack of diarrhoea, and I positively know that it will cure the flux (dysentery). You are at liberty to use this testimonial as you please." Sold by all Druggists.

THE Lexington Democrat makes a great campaign offer of its Sunday and daily edition from now until after the November election for $1. This is about a cent a copy and is not only the cheapest daily you can get but the best democratic organ you can read during the present campaign. This office will take your order for the Democrat but the cash must invariably accompany it.
